- Ex. 2:5 And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river; and her maidens walked along by the river's side; and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it.
- Ex. 2:6 And when she had opened it, she saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children.
- Ex. 2:7 Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?
- Ex. 2:8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother.
- Ex. 2:9 And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it.
- Ex. 2:10 And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses: and she said, Because I drew him out of the water.

- No matter how you came to be, whether you were born in a happy marriage or in a time of crisis, God has a plan for you. Jer. 1:5 Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.
- God's original plan for you is valid because all children are His heritage since He created mankind. Psa. 127:3 Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward.
- In spite of your upbringing, your pain, and your errors, you have a purpose if you choose it. God's love for you covers your past and can enhance your future. Rom. 8:38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

- Our culture tries to injure you before you can find God's plan for your life. Society targets your future through entertainment, social media, and peer pressure, so that it will not line up with God's purpose for you. 1John 2:16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.
- The devil tries to violate you sexually so you will have sexual dysfunction in your life. This may cause you to have children out of wedlock, harm your chances of getting married or staying married, or have a negative perspective of the opposite sex. 1Cor. 6:18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.
- Through these violations, the enemy wants to plant seeds of doubt in you at an early age that will cause you to distrust God's plan. Sin causes us to doubt our very existence and makes us feel expendable and useless. Rom. 6:23 For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

- Even though we may be injured by the actions of others, we are still accountable for our own actions. Our path is our path and we must walk it out no matter what comes our way. Phil. 3:13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,
- When we line up with God and His plan for us, then we can be confident that things will work out for us in the end. Living the right way will always yield better results. Rom. 8:28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.
- The choice is whether or not we want God's plan for us. He has a purpose for you, but it's up to you to live in it. Luke 9:62 And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

Summer

Moses was born into a dysfunctional situation. He was given away by his mother and adopted into a pagan, demonic environment. He grew up with no knowledge of the true and living God. One day when he saw an Egyptian killing a Hebrew, something rose up within him and he committed murder. Then he fled to the wilderness. But God had a plan for Moses. God spoke to him through a burning bush and Moses yielded to God's plan. From that point on, God's plan for him was activated and Moses married, had children, and fulfilled the great call of God to lead His people out of bondage. But even if Moses had never led the children of Israel out of bondage, he still yielded to the voice of the Lord and went against his pagan upbringing, and started a Godly heritage through his family. Moses was delivered before he became the deliverer.

We all have experienced some kind of dysfunction growing up. Whether it was through our parents' mistakes or our own error, we had to endure some kind of issues in our childhood. But we cannot allow issues to stop the plan of God for our lives. What God desires for us is ready and available for us. It's totally up to us to accept it and walk in it. Just as Moses agreed with God and activated His plan, we can do the same. No matter what we did before, we must agree with God's purpose for us and accept His plan in order for it to be activated in our lives. Just as Moses overcame his sins and fulfilled God's purpose for him, we must do the same thing.

2 Tim. 2:22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
